ADVICE TO MEMBERS ON DECLARING INTERESTS AT MEETINGS

If you are present at a meeting of the Council, of its executive or any committee of the executive, or of any committee, sub-committee, joint committee, or joint sub-committee of the authority, and you have a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest (DPI) relating to any business that will be considered at the meeting, you must not:

- participate in any discussion of the business at the meeting, or if you become aware of your Disclosable Pecuniary Interest during the meeting, participate further in any discussion of the business, or
- participate in any vote or further vote taken on the matter at the meeting.

These prohibitions apply to any form of participation, including speaking as a member of the public.

You must:

- leave the room (in accordance with the Members' Code of Conduct)
- make a verbal declaration of the existence and nature of any DPI at any meeting at which you are present at which an item of business which affects or relates to the subject matter of that interest is under consideration, at or before the consideration of the item of business or as soon as the interest becomes apparent.
- declare it to the meeting and notify the Council's Monitoring Officer within 28 days, if the DPI is not already registered.

If you have any of the following pecuniary interests, they are your disclosable pecuniary interests under the new national rules. You have a pecuniary interest if you, or your spouse or civil partner, have a pecuniary interest.

- Any employment, office, trade, profession or vocation carried on for profit or gain, which you, or your spouse or civil partner undertakes.
- Any payment or provision of any other financial benefit (other than from your council or authority) made or provided within the relevant period* in respect of any expenses incurred by you in carrying out duties as a member, or towards your election expenses. This includes any payment or financial benefit from a trade union within the meaning of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992.

*The relevant period is the 12 months ending on the day when you tell the Monitoring Officer about your disclosable pecuniary interests.

- Any contract which is made between you, or your spouse or your civil partner (or a body in which you, or your spouse or your civil partner, has a beneficial interest) and your council or authority –
 - under which goods or services are to be provided or works are to be executed; and
 - which has not been fully discharged.

- Any beneficial interest in land which you, or your spouse or your civil partner, have and which is within the area of your council or authority.
- Any licence (alone or jointly with others) which you, or your spouse or your civil partner, holds to occupy land in the area of your council or authority for a month or longer.
- Any tenancy where (to your knowledge) –
 - the landlord is your council or authority; and
 - the tenant is a body in which you, or your spouse or your civil partner, has a beneficial interest.
- Any beneficial interest which you, or your spouse or your civil partner has in securities of a body where -
 - (a) that body (to your knowledge) has a place of business or land in the area of your council or authority; and
 - (b) either -
 - the total nominal value of the securities exceeds £25,000 or one hundredth of the total issued share capital of that body; or
 - if the share capital of that body is of more than one class, the total nominal value of the shares of any one class in which you, or your spouse or your civil partner, has a beneficial interest exceeds one hundredth of the total issued share capital of that class.

If you attend a meeting at which any item of business is to be considered and you are aware that you have a personal interest in the matter which does not amount to a DPI, you must make verbal declaration of the existence and nature of that interest at or before the consideration of the item of business or as soon as the interest becomes apparent. You should leave the room if your continued presence is incompatible with the 7 Principles of Public Life (selflessness; integrity; objectivity; accountability; openness; honesty; and leadership).

You have a personal interest where –

- a decision in relation to that business might reasonably be regarded as affecting the well-being or financial standing (including interests in land and easements over land) of you or a member of your family or a person or an organisation with whom you have a close association to a greater extent than it would affect the majority of the Council Tax payers, ratepayers or inhabitants of the ward or electoral area for which you have been elected or otherwise of the Authority's administrative area, or
- it relates to or is likely to affect any of the interests that are defined as DPIs but are in respect of a member of your family (other than a partner) or a person with whom you have a close association.

Guidance on declarations of interest, incorporating regulations published by the Government in relation to Disclosable Pecuniary Interests, has been circulated to you previously.

You should identify any potential interest you may have relating to business to be considered at the meeting. This will help you and anyone that you ask for advice to fully consider all the circumstances before deciding what action you should take.

In certain circumstances the Council may grant a dispensation to permit a Member to take part in the business of the Authority even if the member has a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest relating to that business.

To obtain a dispensation, you must write to the Monitoring Officer at least 48 hours before the meeting in question, explaining why a dispensation is sought and desirable, and specifying the period of time for which it is sought. The Monitoring Officer may consult with the Independent Person or the Council's Audit and Standards Committee in relation to a request for dispensation.

Further advice can be obtained from Gillian Duckworth, Director of Legal and Governance on 0114 2734018 or email gillian.duckworth@sheffield.gov.uk.

Subject: New Off-licence at Charles St

Dear Sir/ Madam,

I am writing with regards to the proposed new Off-licence at 39 Charles Street, Sheffield.

I am a resident at [REDACTED] and I received a letter from the council informing me about its application to sell alcohol from 6am.

I am too concerned about the impact of early morning alcohol sales, that could lead to anti social behaviour and litter within the area. I am also worried about the noise it will bring to the area at that time. As a young professional getting up for work I don't want to be confronted by alcoholics or late night party goers at my door step.

To sum up I do support local businesses within the area however I do not support 6am alcohol sales.

Kind Regards,
Tiffany Roddis

Subject: Objection - Charles St

Hi Laura,

Could I lodge a formal objection to the premises at Charles Street, please, on the grounds it isn't appropriate to sell alcohol off-premises from 6am?

Would you also let me have a copy of the application by return, please, so we can consider it properly?

Many thanks,
Douglas

Applicant response – Offered conditions;

Application for Grant of Premises licence
International Food Store, 39 Charles Street, Sheffield S1 2HU

Dear Licensing,

Thankyou for your call earlier regarding this application and the objections you have received.

I have talked at length with my client, and there are several issues,

1. That he will have a bakery and deli section in the mini market and needs to be open at that time in order to serve fresh goods, whilst they are fresh.

(His suppliers are delivering these goods on or around 6am every day)

2. It would serve more of a benefit to have the shops opening times matching the licensing hours, to help prevent potential issues of customers being refused alcohol during the earlier hours , which could lead to conflict.

This is a city centre premises, and the target clients are the office and city workers who might wish to pick up a bottle of wine for when they get home after work.

It is NOT for customers who are looking to buy high strength beers, or ciders in single cans etc. They will be refused service.

And whilst he would rather keep to his proposed hours, he has said that he does not want to create any animosity with local residents and therefore he is willing to offer a few more conditions in order to do whatever he can to further promote the licensing objectives.

This offer is conditional that the objectors remove their objection. If they are not happy to withdraw their objection, my client will go to the hearing and ask for the original hours and conditions that have been previously applied for.

ADDITIONAL OFFER

1. Reduce his opening time and for the sale of alcohol (off the premises) to start at 6.30am, with closing times the same.
3. Periodically monitor the outside the premises for litter throughout the day and complete a litter log on a daily basis.
4. He will use his best endeavours to help disperse anybody that may be loitering outside the premises, and report any issues of disorder and potential crime through the two way radio unit to Sheffield City council*.

My client is a member of 'City Retailers Against Crime' Partnership with the City centre evening economy scheme.

This is in addition to Logging any potential incidents in the Premises Incident Log that will be available upon inspection, monitoring any incidents using the CCTV system and completing the Refusals Book, alongside the challenge 25 policy.

We feel that my client has offered an extensive operating schedule with a raft of conditions to help promote the licensing objectives, and if the objectors would like to see them or discuss any of them in more detail or meet with the client to see his proposals and / or meet face to face then we would be delighted to have the opportunity to do that.

Kind Regards

Tony Clarke
