Remaining Written Answers Provided To Members' Questions

(Published on 31 August 2023)

Question of Councillor Kurtis Crossland to the Leader of the Council and Chair of the Strategy and Resources Policy Committee (Councillor Tom Hunt)

Q.2 I have been reliably informed that due to the recent severe heat, made more likely due to climate change, several trams have faced delays due to overheating. How many times has this occurred in the previous year?

A.2 The answer supplied at the Council meeting was -

“Answer will be sought from SYMCA, and a written update will be provided.”

(A written update was to follow and is awaited.)

Question of Councillor Paul Turpin to the Leader of the Council and Chair of the Strategy and Resources Policy Committee (Councillor Tom Hunt)

Q.1 How many Councillors are yet to complete Equality Diversity and Inclusion (EDI) training?

A.1 The answer supplied at the Council meeting was - Elected Members have attended a range of training and development opportunities on equality, diversity and inclusion over the past year. Officers are in the process of bringing together the data we hold on this and will provide a detailed response on the numbers of Members attending the various types of training as soon as possible, with a likely timescale of 14 days.

(A further response was to follow and is awaited.)

Question of Councillor Shaffaq Mohammed to the Chair of the Transport, Regeneration and Climate Policy Committee (Councillor Ben Miskell)

Q. How much income has the Clean Air Zone generated in charges and fines?

A. The answer supplied at the Council meeting was -

We have a legal and moral duty to improve air quality in Sheffield. Dirty air in Sheffield results in 500 deaths every year. I am sure that you will agree that action was needed. It is also worth reiterating that this was a legal directive from government. Written answer to follow, pending conversations with the Chair of Waste and Street Scene, who's committee oversee PCNs.

A written answer was to follow and is set out below.
